Legal and Ethical Issues in Counseling, Social Work and Marriage & Family Therapy

Friday, August 26, 2016
9:00 AM - 12:15 PM

Butler County

Mental Health & Addiction Recovery Services Board 5963 Boymel Drive
Fairfield OH 45014

Presenter: William L. Hegarty, JD

Deputy Director, Ohio Counselor, Social Worker, and Marriage and Family Therapist Board

William Hegarty earned his Juris Doctorate from Emory University School of Law in Atlanta, Georgia in 1990. Bill became the Investigative Supervisor of the Ohio Counselor and Social Worker Board in August of 1996 where he was responsible for a staff of two investigators. He was promoted to Deputy Director of the Ohio Counselor, Social Worker, and Marriage and Family Therapist Board in December 2003. He routinely makes presentations to national associations, educational institutions and private agencies with regard to ethics in the fields of counseling and social work, and, working with the Assistant Attorney General, prepares cases for administrative hearings.

Discussion Outline

- A. Overview of the Ohio Counselor, Social Worker, and Marriage and Family Therapist Board
- B. Overview of the Investigative Unit of the Board
- C. Types of complaints received by the Board
- D. Case Studies to illustrate the above

Learning Objectives

- Understand the role of a State Regulatory Board
- Become mindful of the new ethical rules that are in place
